Constituent Amendment 1

Section 1. Are you in favor of creating a new section of the Constitution of Kentucky relating to crime victims, as proposed in Section 2 below?

Section 2. It is proposed that a new section be added to the Constitution of Kentucky to read as follows:

To secure for victims of criminal acts or public offenses justice and due process and to ensure crime victims a meaningful role throughout the criminal and juvenile justice process, a victim, as defined by law which takes effect upon the enactment of this section and which may be recognized by the General Assembly, shall have the following rights, which shall be respected and protected by law in a manner no less vigorous than the protections afforded to the accused in the criminal and juvenile justice processes. The rights of crime victims shall have the right to reasonable notice, upon request, to timely notice of all proceedings and to be heard in any proceeding involving a release, plea, sentencing, or an order of consideration of any probation, commutation of sentence, granting of a reprieve, or other matter involving the right of the victim other than grand jury proceedings, the grand jury proceedings at the trial and all other proceedings, other than grand jury proceedings, on the same basis as the accused, the right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay, the right to consult with the attorney for the Commonwealth or the attorney's designee, the right to reasonable protection from the accused and those acting on behalf of the accused throughout the criminal and juvenile justice processes, the right to confer with the accused or an appellate court with jurisdiction over the case, the right to a hearing in any trial or appellate court with jurisdiction over the case, the right to appeal any decision upon which a petition for a new trial or other relief has been timely filed, the right to a new trial or other relief, the right to an independent and impartial hearing in such proceedings, the right to a fair and impartial determination, the right to reasonable protection from the crime victim's safety, dignity, and privacy, and the right to be informed of those enumerated rights, and shall have standing to assert the rights of the victim, the victim's attorney, or any other person representing the victim for the Commonwealth upon request of the victim or the victim's attorney, or the attorney for the Commonwealth upon request of the victim or the victim's attorney.

Constituent Amendment 2

Section 1. Are you in favor of changing the terms of Commonwealth’s Attorneys from seven-year terms to eight-year terms beginning in 2020, changing the terms of judges of the district court from four-year terms to eight-year terms beginning in 2022, and requiring district judges to have been licensed attorneys for at least eight years beginning in 2022, by amending the Constitution of Kentucky to read as stated below?

Section 2. It is proposed that Section 97 of the Constitution of Kentucky be amended to read as follows:

In the year two thousand and every six years thereafter, there shall be an election in each county for a Circuit Court Clerk, and, until the year two thousand and two hundred, in each precinct for a Commonwealth’s Attorney, in each circuit court district, unless the office be abolished, who shall hold their respective offices for a term of years from the first Monday in January after their election, and until the election and qualification of their successors. Beginning in the year two thousand and thirty, and every eight years thereafter, there shall be an election for a Commonwealth’s Attorney in each circuit court district, unless the office be abolished, who shall hold his or her office for eight years from the first Monday in January after his or her election, and until the election and qualification of his or her successor.
