RE: Resignation of Mayor James "Butch" Hackney
City of Providence, Kentucky

Dear Secretary Adams and County Clerk Newell:

I am the city clerk for the City of Providence, Kentucky. Pursuant to the relevant sections of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, please take notice that Mayor James "Butch" Hackney submitted his written resignation as Mayor by letter dated April 23, 2025. The letter of resignation stated it was effective immediately. The City Council met in a special called session at 6:00 pm, local time, Tuesday, May 6, 2025, and the letter was read and accepted. Thereby, the resignation was effective at that time.

Accordingly, the Office of Mayor in the City of Providence is now vacant as of May 6, 2025. The Providence City Council intends to fill the office within the thirty (30) day window prescribed by Kentucky law, so we do not anticipate the Governor will have to fill the vacancy after that thirty (30) day window closes. As soon as the City Council fills the vacancy, we will advise.

Thank you for your attention and notice.

Tiffany Conrad, City Clerk
