QUESTION
"A double-nickel equivalent tax, with the General Assembly's approval of matching state funds, will allow the school district to build a new Louisa West Elementary School and make repairs and upgrades to Blaine, Fallsburg, Louisa East, Louisa Middle, and Lawrence County High School. This only impacts real and personal property. It does NOT impact other taxes, such as utilities tax, motor vehicle tax, sales tax, etc. With this in mind...
Are you "FOR" or "AGAINST" the Lawrence County Board of Education's levy of a double-nickel equivalent tax rate (which is currently valued at 11.8 cents on each one hundred dollars ($100) valuation of real and personal property) to raise funds that would be dedicated to major renovations of existing school facilities, new construction, transportation needs, and related debt service"
