ARTICLE IX
Director Liability

Section 1. A director of corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation for monetary damages for breach of duty as a Director, except for liability (i) for any transaction in which the Director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interest of the corporation;(ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the Director to be a violation of the law; and (iii) for any transaction from which the Director derived an improper personal benefit.

If the Kentucky Business Corporation Act is amended after the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act, as so amended and without the necessity for further member action in respect thereof.

Section 2. The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Kentucky Law, indemnify any director or officer of the Corporation from and against any and all reasonable costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees) and any liabilities including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, penalties, and reasonable settlements paid by or on behalf of , or imposed against, such person in connection with criminal, administrative, investigative or other (including any appeal relating thereto), whether formal or informal, and whether made or brought by or in the right of the Corporation or otherwise, in which such person is, was or at any time becomes a party or witness, or is threatened to be made a party or witness, or otherwise, by reason of the fact that such person is, was or at any time becomes a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or, at the Corporation's request, a director, officer, partner trustee, employee or agent of another corporation or at the Corporation's request, a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise.

The indemnification authorized by this Section 2 shall not be exclusive of any other right of indemnification which any such person may have or hereafter acquire under any provisions of these Articles or the Bylaws of the Corporation, agreement, or disinterested directors or otherwise. The Corporation may take such steps as may be deemed appropriate by the board of directors to provide and secure indemnification to any such persons, including without limitation, the execution of agreements for indemnification between the Corporation and individual directors, officers, employees or agents which may provide rights to indemnification which are broader or otherwise different than the rights authorized by this Section 2.
