ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
COMMONWEALTH EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES PAC, INC.

The undersigned hereby incorporates a nonprofit corporation (the "Corporation") in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and specifically the Kentucky Nonprofit Corporation Acts, KRS §§ 273.161 through 273.390 (the "Act"), and adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I
Name of the Corporation

The name of the Corporation is COMMONWEALTH EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES PAC, INC.

ARTICLE II
Purposes of the Corporation

The Corporation is organized as a political organization in a manner consistent with section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, including the following:

- (1) To engage in activities as a political organization and other non-profit purposes.
- (2) To engage in activities relating to the support of candidates for public office and to influence or attempt to influence the selection, nomination or election of individuals to public office. The corporation is organized as a non-profit corporation, and may engage only in activities that may be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any section of any statute adopted in succession thereof.

ARTICLE III
Powers

In furtherance of its purposes, the Corporation shall have all the powers conferred upon a corporation organized under the provisions of the Act, including, without limitation, the powers:

- (1) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name;
- (2) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;

(3) To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated;

(4) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;

(5) To assist its employees, officers and directors;

(6) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the Corporation may determine;

(7) To lend money for its Corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested;

(8) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the Corporation, who may be directors or members, and define their duties and fix their compensation;

(9) To make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation, the Act or otherwise with the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the Corporation;

(10) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes;

(11) To indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty to the corporation; and to make any other indemnification that shall be authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, or resolution adopted after notice to the members entitled to vote;

(12) To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise; and

(13) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized.

ARTICLE IV Duration

The Corporation shall have perpetual duration.
