Articles of Dissolution

LLD

Pursuant to the provisions of KRS 275.285 and 275.315, the limited liability company executes the following articles of dissolution:

Article I: The name of the limited liability company is

HINKLES BEADWORK (HINKLESBEADWORK.COM) LLC

Article II: This dissolution is pursuant to the following event: there are no remaining members

Article III: The event of dissolution identified in Article II occurred on the following date: 4/11/2025

Article IV: This filing will be effective on Friday, April 11, 2025.

Article V: Additional information, if applicable, that the member(s) or manager(s) filing deem proper:

I haven't earned any income from Hinkles Beadwork in several years. I had to switch to the third shift, and I haven't had the time or energy to do anything with it. Everything keeps changing, and it costs a lot of money to run ads online. People distrust websites, and the only way that I can make a profit is to attend a craft fair as a vendor or a pop-up store, which I can't go to most of the time because I have to work at my primary job. I can only request time off from work to participate and attend, but sometimes I can't have that time off. I have done my best to hold on to my LLC to rise to the challenge, but it's only costing me a website fee and filing fees for taxes. Maybe when I retire, and have some business-tailored education, I will be able to reapply and be very successful, maybe I will have my store someday. Its hard doing business from a website, and I dont want people coming to my house. It would be nice if people were into websites but it isn't practical for hand made jewelry

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Kentucky that the foregoing is true and correct.
