

Article IX

The non-profit limited liability company is organized exclusively for charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501( c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations, or such other international organizations which would qualify under Section 501( c) (3) except for the fact that such organizations may not be subject to United States Law. No part of the income of the company shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the company shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments in distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VIII.

Article X

Upon the dissolution of the non-profit limited liability company, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions for payment of all the liabilities of the company, dispose of all the assets of the company exclusively for the purposes of the company in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of appropriate jurisdiction of the county in which principal office of the company is then located, exclusively for such purposes.
