Article Nine Release from Personal Liability

A Director will not be personally liable to the Corporation or its Shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director, except liability for:

- the amount of a financial benefit received by a Director to which he or she is not entitled under Kentucky law;
- an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the Shareholders, individually or collectively;
- any distribution for which a Director votes or approves that is not lawful under Kentucky law; or
- an intentional violation of criminal law.

Article Ten Indemnification

The Corporation must indemnify every Director or officer—and his or her heirs, executors, and administrators—against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her, as well as any amount paid upon judgment, in connection with any civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding to which he or she may be made a party by reason of having been a Director or officer of the Corporation. But this indemnification excludes any action resulting in the liability of the Corporation for:

a financial benefit received by a Director or officer to which he or she is not entitled under Kentucky law;

an intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the Shareholders, individually or collectively;

any distribution for which a Director or officer votes or approves that is not lawful under Kentucky law; or an intentional violation of criminal law.
