ARTICLE VI

Purposes and Powers

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in previous articles hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Said Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Corporation shall receive contributions and fees, and shall distribute its funds for charitable, scientific, educational, and religious purposes. The Corporation shall have all the powers allowed corporations by Chapter 273 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Any provision of these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation shall not have capital stock or shareholders and shall not have any purpose or object, nor have or exercise any power, nor engage in any activity, which in any way contravenes, or is in conflict with, the other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation.

Elevate Church of Radcliff's mission is to see people saved (converted to Christianity), healed, set free, disciplined, equipped, empowered, and serving God with their whole hearts. We conduct ministries normal to a Pentecostal church to include but not limited to outreach, missions, and benevolence.

ARTICLE VII

Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII

Members

The Corporation shall have members.

ARTICLE IX
Exemption From Liability and Indemnification

Indemnification of Directors, officers, employees, and agents of the Corporation may be as provided for in the bylaws; provided, however, such identification is not otherwise in conflict with the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation.
