3. No director shall have personal liability to the Corporation for the monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation (ii) for facts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; or (iv) in any situation or manner in which such relief from liability would be inconsistent with Kentucky law or with any provision of the Code applicable to organizations described in Section 527 of the Code.

4. Additional provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation, including provisions for distribution of assets upon dissolution or final liquidation, are as follows:

A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay such individuals or contractors reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation;

B. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any activity that would prevent it from obtaining exemption from federal income taxation as a corporation described in Section 527 of the Code, or cause it to lose such exempt status; and

C. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed in accordance with Federal Election Commission regulations and advisory guidance, and otherwise in accordance with Section 527 of the Code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

This filing will be effective on Monday, March 3, 2025.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Kentucky that the foregoing is true and correct.
