Section 7.5. Non-liability of Members. Private property of Members of the Company shall not be subject to the payment of Company debts.

Section 7.6. Indemnification of Members.

7.6.1 To the extent not inconsistent with Kentucky law as in effect from time to time, every person (and the heirs and personal representatives of such person), who is or was a Member, employee, or agent of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company, shall be indemnified by the Company against all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by him in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding: (1) if such Member or employee is wholly successful with respect thereto, or (2) if not wholly successful, then if such Member or employee is determined, as provided below, to have not willfully and recklessly breached the obligation and duty to act in good faith, in what he reasonable believes to be the best interest of the Company, and in addition, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding is determined to have had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, by judgment, settlement (whether with or without court approval), or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that an employee did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in this Section.

7.6.2 The terms “claim”, “action”, “suit” or “proceeding” shall include every claim, action, suit or proceeding and all appeals thereof (whether brought by or in the right of this Company or any other company or otherwise), civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, or threat thereof, in which an employee of the Company (or his heirs and personal representatives) may become involved, as a party or otherwise: (1) by reason of his being or having been an employee of the Company or of any other company which he has served as such at the request of the Company, or (2) by reason of his acting or having acted in any capacity in a partnership, association, trust, or other organization or entity where he served as such at the request of this Company, or (3) by reason of any action taken or not taken by him in any such capacity, whether or not he continues in such capacity at the time such liability or expense shall have been incurred.

7.6.3 The terms “liability” and “expense” shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against, and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of, a Member or employee.

7.6.4 The term “wholly successful” shall mean: (1) termination of any action, suit or proceeding against the person in question without finding of liability or guilt against him, (2) approval by a court, with knowledge of the indemnity herein provided, of a settlement of any action, suit or proceeding, or (3) expiration of a reasonable period of time after the making of any claim or threat of an action, suit or proceeding without the institution of the same, without any payments or promise to induce a settlement.

7.6.5 Every person claiming indemnification hereunder (other than one who has been wholly successful with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding) shall be entitled to indemnification: (1) if special independent legal counsel, which may be regular counsel of the Company or other disinterested person or persons, in either case selected by the Members who own a majority of the Company (such counsel or person or persons being hereafter called the “referee”), shall deliver to the Company a written finding that such Member or employee has met the standards of conduct set forth above, and (2) the person claiming indemnification shall, if requested, appear before the referee, answer questions which the referee deems relevant and shall be given ample opportunity to present to the referee evidence upon which he relies for indemnification. The Company shall, at the request of the referee, make available facts, opinions or other evidence in any way relevant to the referee’s finding which are within the possession or control of the Company.

7.6.6 The rights of indemnification provided in this Section, shall be in addition to any rights to which any such Member or employee may otherwise be entitled. Irrespective of the provisions of this Section, the Members by a majority vote may, at any time and from time to time, approve indemnification of Members, employees or other persons to the full extent permitted by the provisions of Kentucky law at the time in effect, whether on account of past or future transactions.

7.6.7 Expenses incurred with respect to any claim, action, suit, or proceeding may be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the recipient to repay such amount unless he is entitled to indemnification.

Section 7.7. Amendment or Repeal. This Company shall be deemed, for all purposes to have reserved the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Organization by an affirmative vote of the Members owning a majority of the outstanding interests in the Company to the extent and in the manner now or hereafter permitted or prescribed by the Act, and all rights herein conferred upon Members are granted subject to such reservation.

Section 7.8. Taxation. It is the intent of the Organizer and the Members that the Company be taxed as a disregarded entity and not an association for federal income tax purposes.
