The incorporator shall adopt the initial bylaws of the corporation. The Board of Directors may amend the bylaws at any time by the provisions therein.

ARTICLE VI

DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

The Corporation may be dissolved upon the affirmative vote of 80% of the Directors present at any meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present and acting, or upon the written consent of all the Directors. Written notice of a meeting of Directors at which a vote is to be taken to dissolve the Corporation shall be given to all the Directors at least 10 days in advance of such meeting. The Board of Directors shall thereupon take such actions as may be necessary to wind up the affairs of the Corporation and to effect the termination of its corporate existence.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one of more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation does indemnify any directors, officers, employees, incorporators, and shareholders of the corporation from any liability regarding the corporation and the business of the corporation, unless the person fraudulently and intentionally violated the law and/or maliciously conducted acts to damage and/or defraud the corporation, or as otherwise provided under applicable state corporate statute.
