SEVENTH: Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code of Ohio, now or hereafter in force, requiring for any purpose the vote or consent of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise two-thirds or any other proportion of the voting power of the corporation or of any class or classes of shares thereof, such action, unless otherwise expressly required by statutes, may be taken by the vote or consent of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation or of such class or classes.

EIGHTH: Every statute of the State of Ohio hereafter enacted, whereby the rights and privileges of shareholders of a corporation organized under the General Corporation Act of said State are increased, diminished, or in any way affected, or whereby effect is given to any action authorized, ratified or approved by less than all the shareholders of any such corporation, shall apply to this corporation and shall be binding upon every shareholder thereof to the same extent as if such statute had been in force at the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation.
