

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF METRO STARTUP LAUNCHER, INC.

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation is: Metro Startup Launcher, Inc. (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE II
PURPOSES AND POWERS

(1) The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. In carrying out its corporate purposes, the Corporation shall have all the powers allowed corporations by Chapter 273 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

(2) In furtherance of the general purposes in ARTICLE II(1) above, and in coordination with the philosophy of the Corporation set forth in the Corporation's Bylaws (the "Bylaws") and other documents, authorized by the Corporation's Board of Directors, the particular purposes of the Corporation are as follows:

- (a) To solicit and acquire by gift, exchange or otherwise, property of any and all kinds, and to sell, transfer and otherwise dispose of any property it so acquires;
- (b) To receive, accept and maintain, including investment and administration, as assets of the Corporation (permanent asset funds), any property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, devise, or purchase from any person, firm, trust, or corporation, to be held, administered, and disposed of exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and in accordance with, and pursuant to, the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation; but no gift, bequest, devise, or purchase of any such property shall be received or made and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of income or principal to any organization other than a "charitable organization" or for any purposes other than a "charitable purpose" which would jeopardize the status of the Corporation as an entity exempt from federal income tax pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Code;
- (c) To manage and administer, including the ability to designate and coordinate with selected trustees or corporate trust companies, the investment, holding and disbursement of funds over which the Corporation has been appointed to said duties, in conformity with guidelines established in grant or trust documents and all guidelines established by the Corporation, and consistent with the Corporation's charitable purposes and all applicable law and regulation; such management and/or administration may include establishment of such funds required by separate gift restrictions, donor request, Corporation procedures, gift description, or otherwise, and hiring, where appropriate, duly qualified investment managers for any, or all, of such funds, as independent contractors. The funds so managed will generally be nonpermanent or pass-through funds (which may include restricted, unrestricted, designated and advised funds) or funds intended to constitute a future endowment, but which are to be managed as pass-through funds until the occurrence of a granting event (for example, charitable remainder trusts).

(3) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its trustees, directors, officers or others private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislature, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(4) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(5) The Corporation shall neither have, nor exercise any power, nor shall it directly or indirectly engage in any activity, that would:

- (a) prevent it from obtaining or maintaining exemption from federal income taxation as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code;
- (b) cause it to lose its exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code;
- (c) cause it to be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit;
- (d) result in a substantial part of its activities consisting of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation;
- (e) involve participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office;
- (f) violate applicable federal, state, or local laws;
- (g) result in any prohibited transactions described in Section 503 of the Code;
- (h) cause it to accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner that would endanger its exempt status by virtue of Section 504 of the Code;
- (i) accumulate income so as to be subject to corporate tax under Section 4942 of the Code; or
- (j) result in any act of self-dealing, retaining any excess business holdings, making any investment which would subject it tax under Section 4944 of the Code, or making any taxable expenditures.

Any contract or transaction of business between the Corporation and one (1) or more of its directors, or with any corporation or association in which any of its directors is a stockholder, director or officer, shall not be invalidated or affected solely by the fact that such director or directors have or may have interests therein which are or might be adverse to the interests of the Corporation; provided, however, that a director having an interest adverse to that of the Corporation shall disclose such interest to the Board of Directors, and shall not vote on any matter involving such interest, although he or she may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum. (d) Any assets not disposed of pursuant to the previous provisions of this ARTICLE IX shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, to such organizations, as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and are exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
