Article VII: This application will be effective upon filing with the Commonwealth of Kentucky, Secretary of State.

Article VIII: This organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IX: Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Article X: No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any officer or director of the Corporation, or to any private individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered (1) to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and (2) to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its charitable purposes. No officer or director of the Corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the Corporation's assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

Article XI: No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Article XII: The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its trustees or Board of Directors. The number of directors may be changed at any time by amendment of the by-laws.

Article XIII: A director shall not be personally liable to the corporation for monetary damages for the breach of duties as a director, provided however, a director's liability shall not be limited for:

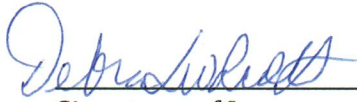

- (A) Any transaction in which the director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interest of the corporation.
- (B) Acts of omission not in good faith which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the director to be a violation of law; or
- (C) Any transaction from which the director derived an improper benefit.

In no case shall the above provision be construed to expand the liability of any director as determined pursuant to KRS 273.215.

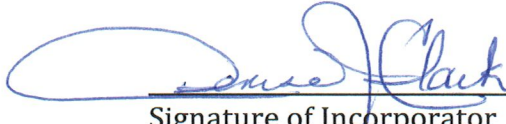

Article XIV: The duration of the Corporation will be perpetual.

Article XV: Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

We declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky that the foregoing is true and correct
