Amendment

Statement of Purpose

The corporation is a Church and shall operate exclusively for religious, charitable, educational and other purposes within the meaning of section 501(c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (hereinafter "Code"). As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes, the corporation shall have the power to engage in any lawful act or activity necessary or appropriate to the attainment of those purposes; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, or any other provision of law, the corporation shall not have the power to carry on any activities which would cause it to fail to qualify, or to fail to continue to qualify, as (i) an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) an organization to which contributions are deductible under section 170(c)2 of the Code.

Distribution of Assets

No part of the earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any private individual or person; provided, however, that the corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to it and reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred on its behalf. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

The amendment was duly adopted on July 19, 2023.
