To whom it may concern:

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to inform you that I have made the decision to close my LLC, HM TILE LLC. The reason for this closure is due to a significant error that occurred during the initial registration process. Unfortunately, my business, which is located in Tennessee, was mistakenly registered in Kentucky by the accountant who assisted me with the registration. As you are aware, my operations and business licenses are solely based in Tennessee, and it is crucial that this oversight is rectified promptly.

I am taking all necessary steps to correct this mistake and ensure that my business is appropriately registered in the state of Tennessee. As a result, I have made the difficult decision to close the current LLC and pursue the necessary procedures to establish a new LLC in the correct jurisdiction.

I appreciate your understanding in this matter and apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. If you require any further information or documentation regarding this change, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your attention to this important issue.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Kentucky that the foregoing is true and correct.
