ARTICLE VIII

Limitation on Director Liability

Section 1. No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for any breach of his or her duties as a director, except for liability (i) for any transaction in which the director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interests of the corporation or its shareholders and which is not a transaction permitted by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act in effect at the time of the transaction; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the director to be a violation of law; (iii) for any vote for or assent to an unlawful distribution to shareholders as prohibited under KRS 271B.8-330; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 2. If the Kentucky Business Corporation Act is amended after the filing of these Articles of Incorporation to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act, as so amended, and without the necessity for further shareholder action in respect thereof.

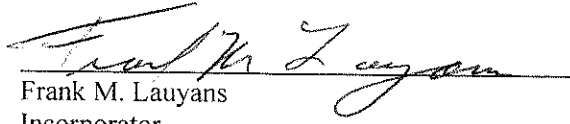

Section 3. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation hereunder which is given, provided or permitted by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act in effect at the time of the act or omission or in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.
