Article II. Purposes:

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, and shall at all times be operated in such manner as to qualify as an organization exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (the “Code”), as such section may be interpreted by valid regulations and Internal Revenue Service rulings and determinations, including in such operations the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code from federal income taxes.

Without limiting or expanding the foregoing, said purposes include conducting such other activities and providing such other services as are necessary or desirable for the accomplishment of the above stated purposes, so long as such activities and services are permitted under Chapter 273 of the Kentucky Revised Code and will not jeopardize the Corporation’s qualification as an organization exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, including, but not limited to, the making of distributions to other organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and conduct activities consistent with such purposes, the nonprofit corporation laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Article VIII: Additional Provisions:

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, all of the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
