Additional Pages:

- A. This Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code.
- B. The Corporation is not organized and shall not be operated for pecuniary gain or profit. No part of the property or net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its directors, officers, or private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in hereinabove. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda, or otherwise attempted to influence legislation to such extent as would result in loss of its exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the code, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code ( or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- C. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payments of all of the liabilities of the Corporation exclusively for the purpose of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, literary, religious or educational purposes and shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any such assets not disposed of by the Superior Court of the County in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, to another organization as said the court shall determine, to be used in such a manner as in the judgment of the court will accomplish the general purposes for which the dissolved organization was organized.
- D. The Directors of the Corporation shall be elected or appointed as provided for in the bylaws and shall be immune from liability to the fullest extent permitted by law. Without limited the generality of the foregoing, no Director shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of duty or care or other duty as a Director for (a) any appropriation, in violation of his/her duties, of any business opportunity of the Corporation; (b) acts or omissions which involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (c) any transactions from which the Director derives an improper personal benefit.
