Annexation (Goble-Roberts)

Defendant,

RE: ANNEXATION INTO THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, OF A CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND IMMEDIATELY ADJACENT TO THE MOST EASTERN LIMITS OF THE CITY LIMITS OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

JUDGMENT

It appearing that on November 21, 1968, at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, said council duly adopted and passed an ordinance, being Ordinance No. 8-68 which directed that proceedings be instituted in the Floyd Circuit Court to incorporate within the territory of said City a certain tract of land, a description of which is hereinafter setout; and it appearing that said ordinance was advertised according to law for three consecutive weeks in the Floyd County Times, a weekly newspaper in said city, said advertisement being made November 28, 1968, December 5, 1968 and December 12, 1968.

And it further appearing that thereafter, and on December 14, 1968, a petition was filed in the Floyd Circuit Court, asking that the hereinafter described territory be annexed to said city; and it appearing that said petition was filed more than twenty days before the January term of court, and that the notice of filing of the petition was advertised in the Floyd County Times for three consecutive weeks on December 19, 1968, December 26, 1968 and January 9, 1969.

And it further appearing that none of the residents or resident voters of the territory proposed to be annexed have opposed or remonstrated against the petition for annexation, and no defense having been made by anyone to said annexation; and it further appearing that the proposed annexation will be for the best interest of the City and will cause no material injury to the owners of real estate in the limits of the proposed extension and annexation.
